

THE DOUGLAS COUNTY GLOBAL WARMING COALITION PRESENTS

MOVING TOWARDS A FOSSIL FUEL FREE FUTURE: THE ECONOMIC BENEFITS FOR RURAL COMMUNITIES

*WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30TH 6:30 PM
DOUGLAS COUNTY LIBRARY FORD ROOM*

FEATURING

DR. RANDALL BLUFFSTONE

Professor of Economics and Director of the Institute for Economics and the Environment at Portland State University

AND

DYLAN KRUSE

Sustainable Northwest's Director of Government Affairs and Program Strategy and a Member of the Leadership Team of the Rural Voices for Conservation Coalition

Dr. Bluffstone and Mr. Kruse will discuss the economic potential for rural communities in the areas of forestry, agriculture, sustainability and renewable energy in a world transitioning to a healthy climate future

Information - 541-672-9819 Printed On Recycled Paper

